Business Context

Browbake, a new bakery specializing in brownies and tres leches, is looking to use AI to enhance its brand presence and make smarter business decisions. By leveraging AI-generated marketing materials like posters and promotional videos with voiceovers, they aim to create eye-catching content that attracts customers and strengthens their digital presence.

Beyond promotions, Browbake wants AI to provide simple, actionable insights from their data. This includes understanding which products sell best, identifying peak sales times, and tracking customer preferences. By using AI for both branding and basic analytics, Browbake hopes to grow efficiently and make informed decisions with minimal effort.

Poster

Tools: https://chatgpt.com/

Prompt: Create a visually appealing promotional poster for my small baking business, Browbake, which specializes in brownies and tres leches cakes. The poster should include the company name prominently, along with catchy taglines that highlight the rich flavors and indulgence of our baked goods (e.g., 'Pure Bliss in Every Bite' or 'Decadence, Redefined'). Use a warm, inviting color palette with elements that emphasize the texture and richness of brownies and the creamy, moist nature of tres leches. The design should be modern, elegant, and mouthwatering, appealing to dessert lovers. Optionally, include a space for contact details or social media handles.

Note: Use  to highlight the details.
